

Chinese and Western Combinations

Capricorn (Buffalo) Month

Combination with Ram Year:

---

"Utilize" Saturn, Earth, Cardinal

"Reliance" Yang-Negative Fire

Characteristics: Worry, Self-Doubt, Impracticality, Taste, Wisdom, Dependability, Superiority, Epicureanism, Good Manners, Generosity, Loneliness, Whimsy, Perseverance, Tardiness, Pessimism, Sensitivity, Ambition, Clumsiness, Lack of Foresight, Pretension, Resolve, Invention, Stiffness, Parasitism

This combination is a daydreamer who is sometimes lost in reverie. The more powerful Capricorn portion of this combination refuses to accept this. The result is sometimes internal conflict. There is a general, unpleasant feeling surrounding this clash of opposites. Feelings of anguish are even possible. There is a head butting dialectic in the Capricorn-Ram combination. The Capricorn brings a lot of ambition to the table. This is in contrast to the lazy and sometimes apathetic Ram. The Capricorn gives the Ram a proper kick in the rear end. The Ram portion of this combination is sensitive. Fortunately for them, both the Capricorn and the Ram have large doses of determination. Dedicated to achieving success, their creative instincts are not allowed to develop as fully as the Capricorn-Ram would like. Still they remain a bit on the wacky side and lead all Capricorns in that category. The Capricorn-Ram realizes that they must work hard and, above all, be serious about their career. They want power, but often that comes as the result of climbing the ladder from the bottom up.

Romance: This combination is a dreamer and a romantic and believes in frogs turning into princes and sleeping beauties waking up to kisses. They are extremely affectionate and are the type who throw extravagant surprise birthday parties and give unexpected presents. The Capricorn-Ram is a lover. In fact, in the area of romance they possess a high degree of passion. This shows itself not so much in loquacious statements of eternal love as it does in the bedroom and in the loving way they express their feelings.

Relationships: Somewhat in the negative department for compatibility in this combination are Aries, Cancer or Libra-Tigers as are Aries and Libra-Dogs. Further combinations that are not recommended are Aries and Libra-Buffalos. Bringing up the tail end and not recommended at all are Libra-Horses. Superior selections in the area of romance are Taurus, Leo, Virgo, Scorpio or Pisces-Boars. Most Boars are positive for the Capricorn-Ram. Additional good choices are Leo, Virgo, Scorpio or Pisces-Rabbits. Continuing the list of positive picks are Leo, Scorpio or Pisces-Horses.

Family Life: Without warning and not even a moment's notice, this combination might decide to add an entire wing to their home or, barring that, wallpaper the entire house. Costs frequently do not matter to the Capricorn-Ram. They are totally and completely no holds barred materialistic and not the least bit ashamed of that fact. Even though Capricorn-Rams do not spend a lot of time at home, they want a showy and tidy abode. This character, as mentioned above, is a bit on the weird side. That eccentricity carries over to the area of home decorating.

Likelihood: This combination can be leaders of people and compete with the Pied Piper for followers. Creating that mixture properly can result in a character with mysterious qualities that are much more than the sum of its parts. There is also a fairly good chance that this person will be somewhat insistent on having things their own way. However, since they have achieved such a high level of fame and adulation that is generally acceptable. In spite of the Capricorn-Ram's eccentricities and downright craziness, this combination is a human magnet. People love them across the board. If the Capricorn-Ram takes care to nurture and advance their positive qualities there is nothing stopping them on the road to success.

Famous Capricorn/Rams: Maurice Utrillo, Reverend Moon, John Denver, Ben Kingsley, Couve de Murville
